

HUMAN TRAFFICKING INSTITUTE

EMPOWERING JUSTICE SYSTEMS TO DECIMATE MODERN SLAVERY AT ITS SOURCE

DONNA HAMILTON

*Director of Finance &
Operations*

Donna Hamilton serves as the Director of Finance and Operations for the Human Trafficking Institute. She has over 28 years of experience in nonprofit finance and operations. Most recently, she served as a Senior Director of Financial Planning and Analysis at March of Dimes, where she successfully managed the team that supported the Operational Departments as well as Accounts Payable and Procurement. She was one of the lead directors on the restructure of the Finance Department, which included the implementation of new systems for Finance, Travel, and Expenditures.

Prior to joining the March of Dimes, she spent 25 years working within the Biomedical side of the American Red Cross. Donna began her lengthy tenure as a Finance Manager and moved up the ranks to Senior Director. There, she was a key member of the Senior Leadership Team for Blood Collections. She was also on the senior team working on strategic changes in structure, locations, and staffing. For both March of Dimes and the American Red Cross, Donna managed budget and forecast development and drove operational improvements using key performance indicators.

She is the recipient of several awards and honors, including the Tiffany Award from the American Red Cross for Operational Support. She is a member of the World Finance Forum, where she recently presented on building a Financial Planning and Analysis team. Donna received an A.S. degree in Accounting from Daniel Webster College in New Hampshire and a B.S. in Accounting from Saint Leo University in Florida.
